Foreword

Our high school days are filled with cherished memories. Some we remember better than others, such as that important game we wanted so much to win, our first school dance, the class parties and picnics, the thrill of being a senior, and at last the wonderful feeling of accomplishment when that coveted diploma is placed in our hand.

To help remember these special moments, we present to you, the student body of Holliday High School, the 1962 Eagle.

Mrs. Thornton, you have helped us many times with library assignments, and your art work has been a source of pleasure to us on many occasions. The scrapbook of our activities which you have kept through the years indicates a sincere interest in the students of Holiday, and our first Future Teachers Association with you as sponsor has been a complete success. We salute you!

Mrs. Slover, we know you are a wonderful teacher because we were once in your first grade class. Our love and respect for you has not diminished, now that we are older. The faculty has recognized you by naming you Teacher of the Year and the people of our community have often praised you for your ability to guide and instruct the youngest of our students. Congratulations!

We, the yearbook staff, proudly dedicate the 1962 Eagle to Mrs. Louise Thornton and to Mrs. Ina Slover.

The Eagle Staff

The pages of this 1962 Eagle were planned and edited by the group pictured above. They have spent many extra hours doing this because they hoped to please other students and the people of the community with the results. Their work has shown that they were capable of accepting responsibility and that they were willing to give more than is required of the usual student. Any teacher who has lost faith in the modern teenager has only to sponsor a yearbook to regain it. I have truly appreciated the work of each staff member.

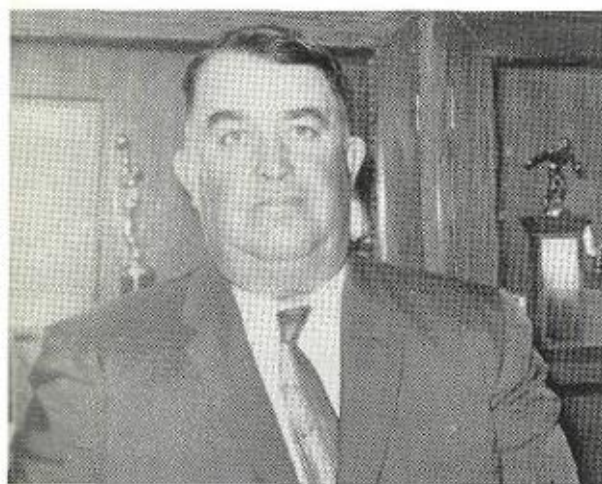

Staff Sponsor,

Ethel R. Fisher

Rickey Welch, an outstanding sophomore, was our best salesman for 1962. We do not know the secret of his success, but each staff member has a different guess. We extend to Ricky our heartest congratulations.

President - GILBERT FINNELL

Vice-President - NOEL PAUTSKY

Secretary - RUFUS SZENASI

Every good school must have a group of fine, unselfish men to set its policies and help to work out the many details that pave the way for a smooth-running school year.

Holliday is fortunate in having such a group.

Prophecy

The year is 1972. The scene is the home of Nancy Ray. Nancy: Well, Carolyn Tedder, please come in. It's been such a long time. Carolyn: Hasn't it though? I'm trying to get all of our old classmates together for a reunion. You haven't heard from any of them have you? Nancy: Yes, a few. R'Dean has opened a cigar factory in Holliday. She seems to be doing very well. I suppose you know about Sue Stone. She took over Jerry's place in the FBI. Right now she's tracking down a gang of smugglers. Carolyn: Yes, I got a letter from her last week. She told me that Jerry Schoonover moved to Greenwich Village. He's giving "Burf" and Bongo lessons to the Beatniks. Also, I saw Dwain Dickerson's picture in a movie magazine last week. He has taken Chubby Checker's place making "jerk" records. He's called "Dobie, King of the Jer." Nancy: Not Dwain!! He's as successful as Sammye Askins. Sammye now has his own traveling medicine show. He sells Dr. Askins Cure-All Tonic. Oh, you remember how bright Gary McDaniel was don't you? Well, he has devised a new way to shoot pool - with a slide rule. Carolyn: He always said he'd master that game. We have a few other celebrities among our class of '62. Jane Crow has recently opened in London at the Paladium. She's portraying Ceelie in the hit "Hillbilly Weddin'." Frances Renner is now touring with the Metropolitan Ballet Company as the star performer. She is known as "crazy legs Renner," in the USA. Nancy: Linda Wallace phoned me last month. She wanted me to be sure to watch for her performance on the Ted Mac Original Amateur Hour. She is going to play "Some-body's Everybody's Fool" on a banjo and call hogs at the same time. Oh, yes, Kay Riddles is now the assistant manager of the Ft. Clark Guest Ranch. I can't understand why she went back. You remember good ole' Wayne Roberts don't you? Carolyn: Of course. He was taking a course in mechanics. Nancy: Well, he finished it and opened up a wonderful garage. He was doing splendid until he was asked to overhaul a Stutz Bearcat. He owns a junk yard now. Carolyn: Isn't that strange? I suppose you heard about poor Guy Cowden didn't you? Nancy: No, what happened? Carolyn: He became a chemical scientist and created a substance that eats through anything! But he's going out of his mind trying to find something to keep it in. Linda Campbell has really risen in the education world. She's now the librarian at Holliday High School. Nancy: She always was such a quiet, reserved person. Andy Dick has a daily article in the newspaper. It's called Andy's Advice to the Heartbroken Lovers. Carolyn: Guess what Chris White is doing? She finally learned how to play something besides Chop Sticks on the piano. She got a letter from Liberace asking her to sign a partnership contract. I heard that Mike Morgan is now a missionary in Darkest Africa. Such a dedicated person. Nancy: You remember how musical Billy Craddock was don't you? Well, he is now playing the flute with the Philharmonic Orchestra. Jackie Robertson is famous, too. He's now the star performer of the Harlem Globe Trotters. Carolyn: You know, Carolyn Harmon must have really learned a good deal in Mrs. Hook's English Class. She gave up everything to become an English major. She now teaches at Yale University. Nancy: Necie Liggett is getting ready for the big race at Indianapolis on Memorial Day. Necie leaves her job as Professor of archeology at Princeton every year to take the grand trophy at this great race. Glynda Tammen is the new athletic coach at the Ft. Worth Zoo. She's teaching the chimps how to play football. Carolyn: I saw Wanda Davis and Phyllis Ford last Thursday night on T.V. They are now the World's Champion Lady Wrestlers. Nancy: I'm really proud of Lynn Moss. He's now a psychiatrist. Carolyn: He always was such an alert and wide-awake person. Where's Roy Don Hoing now? Nancy: I heard that Roy Don gave up his job as forest Ranger when the manager of Kiddy Land offered him a steady job playing an Indian at special parties. Well, I suppose that's all. Oh, by the way, Carolyn, what are you doing now. Carolyn: Well, I found IBM calculators to be very dull, so I switched to bird watching in Central Park. How about you. Nancy: Because of my quiet nature, I decided that the only thing I could do was be a social counselor at the White House. It's very interesting work. Well, Carolyn, I'm certainly glad you dropped by. It's been so nice finding out about all of our classmates. Carolyn: Well, I really must rush. I've got a lot of planning before the reunion.

Class Will

This is the last will and testament of the seniors of 1962. We give to our dear teachers, who have been our instructors in all wisdom of the ages, a sweet and unbroken succession of restful nights and peaceful dreams.

Wayne Roberts and Roy Don Hoing will to Johnny Ward and Wayne Morton their ability to keep quiet in Mrs. Hook's class.

Frances Renner wills to Leon Tice her good grades in shorthand and one slightly used shorthand pad.

Sue Stone wills to Carolyn Davis all her fun smoking cigars on the Sr. Trip.

Jane Crow wills her tired and aching muscles after football games to Ann Cochran.

Nell Harmon wills to Patsy West her Christian Dior original she wore in the Sr. play.

Phyllis Ford wills to Fay Nell Young her ability to cut a round cake into square pieces on the last night of the senior trip.

Roy Don Hoing wills to Johnny John and Ronnie Reed the matches he used to exterminate the shop. Only thing is they are slightly used.

Billy Craddock wills his ability to sit up on the roof and scare the room mothers half to death to Jimmy Bertrand.

R'Dean Smith and Sue Stone will to Daryl Lowder and Ronnie Daily their ability to run out of gas in a borrowed car.

Lynn Moss will his ability to sleep in Mrs. White's class to Daryl Lowder.

Jack Robertson wills his ability to play the guitar to Mike Smith.

Jane Crow wills her good grades in geometry to Charles Calligan.

Gary McDaniel wills his vaseline for his slide rule to Jeannette Frey.

Linda Wallace wills to Shirley Szenasi all her bruises received on the Sr. trip from riding bicycles built for two.

Glynda Tammen wills her good posture to Ralph Campbell.

Chris White wills her ability to hot rod to Sherry Morgan.

Kay Riddles, Nell Harmon, and Linda Campbell will their slightly used bathroom window to Sandy Adams, Louise Karr, and Virginia Holt for the boys after bed check.

Wanda Davis wills her ability to do the Limbo on the Sr. trip to Glenda Chamberlain.

Gary McDaniel wills his remaining cigars to Larry Finnell.

Kay Riddles wills her ability to stay on a horse while riding fence with Ralph to Virginia Holt.

Guy Cowden wills his notebook to Kenny Shelton who will need it in his hard studies.

Lynn Moss wills his ability to rip two inches of felt on the pool table at Ft. Clark to Travis Stegall.

Guy Cowden wills his ability to climb trees at midnight without getting caught to Arthur Spencer.

Mike Morgan wills to Billy Holt his ability to fly through the air without the aid of wings; just a horse.

Linda Campbell wills her perfect school attendance and robust, loud ways to Carolyn Franklin.

Linda Campbell wills to Daryl Lowder the bows off her toes in the Sr. play to help him get a date for the banquet next year.

Nancy Ray wills to Gail Fletcher her very quiet manner.

Carolyn Tedder, Sue Stone, Kay Riddles, Nancy Ray, and R'Dean Smith will to Sandy Adams, Louise Karr, and Virginia Holt their ability to get along with Coach Cunningham.

Wanda Davis wills to Barbara King her athletic ability.

R'Dean Smith wills to Jo Ann St. Clair her taste for El Producto cigars.

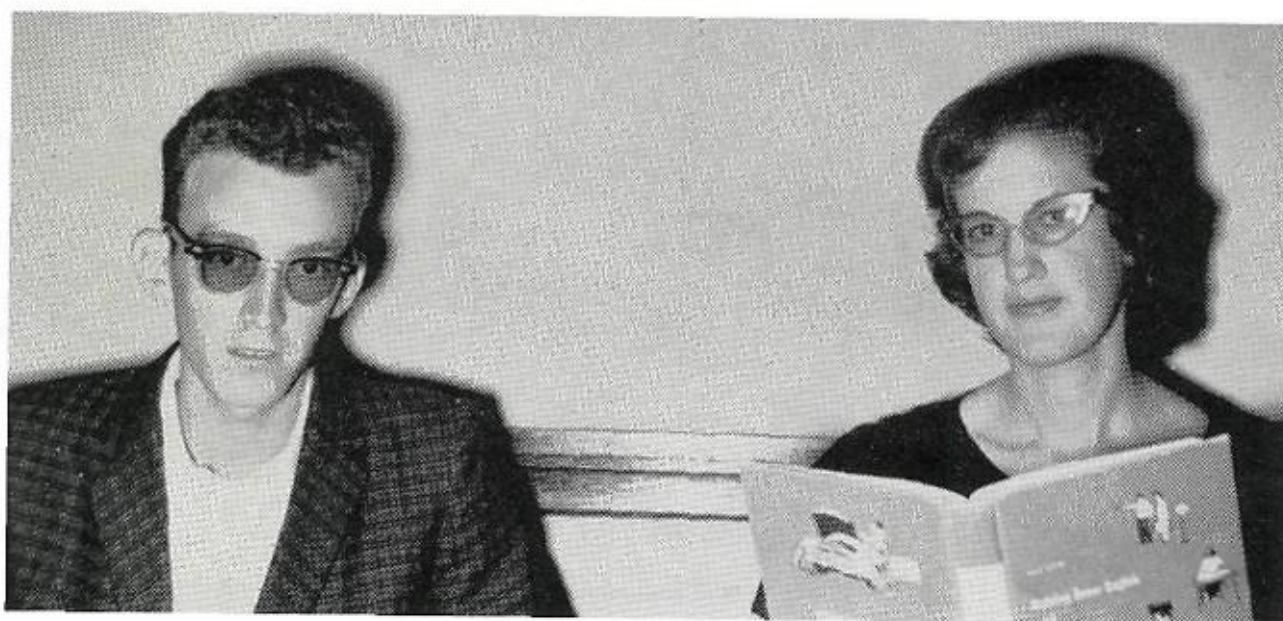

Jerry Schoonover wills to Mike Fox his ability to keep eight girls entertained on the last night of the Senior trip.

R'Dean Smith wills to Laveda Brown all her excess height.

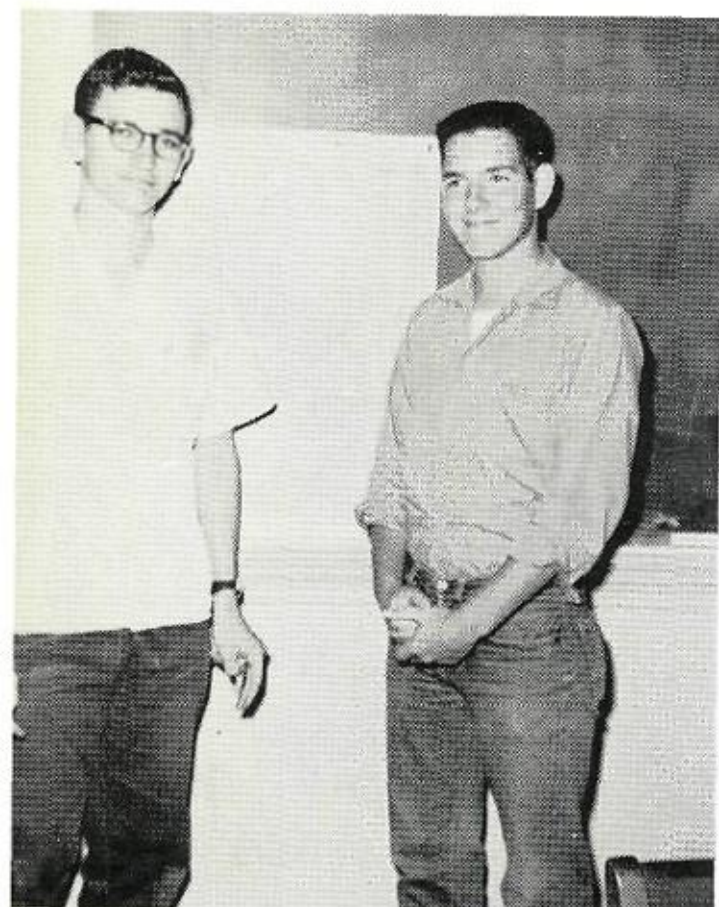

And last to Mr. Cunningham, the entire Sr. Class leaves a box of handkerchiefs to dry his eyes when we're gone.

Well, here we are, another year gone by and another yearbook completed.

Making up this Eagle was a lot of fun and a lot of work; meeting deadlines, scheduling and taking pictures, writing copy and selling ads. We've tried our best and we sincerely hope that you will enjoy your 1962 Eagle.

As you go through the Eagle we hope you'll pleasantly recall all the memories of this year - the things we did in assemblies, clubs and classes, not to mention the fun we had watching sports and gossiping with friends.

Planning ahead for your electrical future

How many new uses for electricity will you enjoy 10 or 15 years from now? No one can tell you today, but men are at work in the laboratories developing new electrical conveniences you will use in the years to come. And there will be plenty of electricity to operate these electrical appliances of tomorrow. Business-managed electric companies, like Texas Electric Service Company, constantly plan and build ahead to keep your electric service supply plentiful and dependable . . . ready when needed for progress and for better living.

Mrs. Maggie Simpson

Solomon Perkins and Family

PEOPLE, PLACES, AND THINGS

With H. M. (Pap) Simpson

This page is offered as a tribute to my mother and to women teachers in general. Before 1902 Holliday had never had women teachers, although many patrons favored using them. In 1902 two trustees who believed in women teachers were elected and soon afterwards my mother, Mrs. Maggie Simpson, was given a contract to teach five months at $45.00 per month. When she learned of heated arguments and hard feelings the move had incurred, she offered to hand the contract back unsigned.

However, John Solomon Perkins, who is pictured with his family was one of the newly elected trustees and he refused to let her return the contract. He held to his firm belief that women were often better qualified to teach than men. The two older boys pictured attended school with Maggie Simpson as their teacher, but the family later moved to Channing, Texas.

Many changes have taken place in the sixty years since this incident. There are probably two women teachers to each man and educational requirements for both men and women are much higher. Maggie Simpson's education was limited, but she did attend Marionville Collegiate Institute in Missouri and minutes from that institution show that she was once a member of the literary society called Beta Zeta. Older people in Holliday will remember that after retiring she ran the old Holliday Hotel and those who knew her best will testify to her indomitable spirit.
